

CORONAVIRUS

How health and care partners across Bath and North East Somerset, Swindon and Wiltshire have responded so far

15,300

calls to community hub helplines

7,131

outpatient appointments carried out by video

175

extra beds made available through independent providers

7,729

welfare visits and calls to extremely vulnerable people via the compassionate and communities hubs

15,812

hours of domiciliary (home) care provided

20,000

video appointments by GPs

17

weekly webinars for GPs to share information and ideas to support their response to coronavirus

11,028

PPE items donated after a cross BSW appeal

3 hubs set up by health and care partners and third sector organisations to support vulnerable people in the community

10

hot hubs set up in GP surgeries so patients with coronavirus symptoms can be seen face-to-face

1

new Nightingale Hospital built to help support our local response

6,242

calls to Consultant Connect – a service which instantly links GPs with specialists for treatment advice and helps keep patients out of hospital

