

Kindness into action

NHS England and NHS Improvement
Civility and Respect programme brings you a Kindness into Action masterclass to create and sustain kinder cultures in the NHS.

Kinder cultures lead to safer care and better outcomes. This masterclass supports the NHS People Plan and People Promise, and is for leaders at all levels across all clinical and non-clinical roles, in Health and Social Care. You will explore the evidence, practice kinder leadership and learn lessons from the front-line of kinder culture change.
