

VIRTUAL SPINAL STUDY DAY – SPINES IN PRIMARY CARE

Friday 26th November 2021

09:00 – 16:30 via MS Teams

Intended Audience

- Physiotherapists in all Primary Care settings where Spinal patients may present.
- Doctors at all levels (GPs, Consultants, Registrars, Junior doctors) + Nurse Practitioners in Primary Care
 - First Contact Practitioners (FCPs) and Extended Scope Practitioners (ESPs)
- Private MSK/Spinal Physiotherapists in the Severn Region who refer into services

Topics To Include (note subject to change)

- Brief overview of the Spinal Network and its role and remit
- Explanation of pathways- Cauda Equina Syndrome and Lower Back Pain pathways
- Expectations of referral criteria from Primary Care to NBT ESPs and Spinal Consultants
- Overview of the common spinal conditions referred to Secondary Care Spinal MDT
 - Optimising conservative management for spinal conditions
 - Image Interpretation and what imaging is required
 - Red Flags and Spinal Masqueraders
 - Explaining pain and motivational interviewing in primary care
 - Axial Spondyloarthropathies Management
 - Uncovering the role and relevance of blood tests
- Spinal deformity in the older person-Benefits and risks of surgery? Is it worth it?
 - Q+A Session on Spines

How To Access

Cost: Free

How to book: Please visit Eventbrite via the link below or scan QR Code:-

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/spinal-study-day-for-primary-care-fcps-acps-gps-and-outpatient-physios-tickets-178082318007>

